Lori Dann

Biographical Info New Member Bio- Lori Dann is founder of Presidents' Leadership Council (PLC), an exclusive membership organization for small business presidents, CEOs, founders, and partners, who are running businesses generally with less than $10M in revenue. Forums of peers, in non-competing industries, are formed and meet monthly in a strictly confidential environment to work through challenges and opportunities together in real time. Members appreciate building relationships with others at their level that can share their experience, strengths, perspectives, and resources. PLC is designed to meet the unique needs of the small business leader.
